

Chancellor election 2025

Supporter form

The University is accepting nominations of candidates for election in summer 2025 as the Chancellor at the University of Cambridge.

This form should be completed by members of the Senate of the University of Cambridge wishing to nominate a candidate for election as the Chancellor in summer 2025. Each supporter should complete and sign a copy of this form and send it to the candidate to be submitted by them as part of the candidate's complete nomination pack.

It is the responsibility of the candidate, or their delegate, to ensure their nomination meets all the requirements (including collating completed and signed supporter forms). The University will not complete validity checks on the nominations until after the deadline for nominations at 12 noon on 2 May 2025 has passed.

If a nomination is found to be invalid, there will be no opportunity for resubmission.

Personal data

When this form is submitted, the University of Cambridge, Civica and others providing services to the University will hold and use the information provided on this form for the purposes of this election.

Information about supporters will be used to verify their membership of the Senate and their eligibility to nominate a candidate. The names of supporters will be published alongside the names of the candidate(s) they have nominated on University websites and provided as part of the materials for voters.

For further information on how the University processes personal information, please see: How we use your personal information \(general\)
